DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganyika, Aug. 18—The government newspaper the Nationalist said today that American aid to Congolese President Moise Tshombe emphasizes the fact that he is "the handmaiden of American foreign policy."

The editorial added: "It is difficult not to suspect that the U.S. Government is trying to create another Viet-Nam in the Congo."

The paper also said it was becoming apparent that the insurgent activities in the Congo republic were nationalistic rather than foreign-inspired.
